SACRED PAUSE:

MISSION & PURPOSE

We believe in the transformative power of pausing in a world that never stops moving. Our wellness retreat is a sanctuary for those who want to unplug from the chaos of modern life and embark on a meaningful journey towards growth and wellness.

Guided by esteemed wellness leaders, our program unveils a world of holistic practices and teachings to revitalize your heart, mind, body, and soul. This immersive retreat equips you with sustainable habits and tools to enrich your life, both during your stay and beyond. As we journey together, participants will develop deeper connections with themselves and others, weaving together our collective experiences into a tapestry of transformation.

Our mission is to create a nurturing environment, centered around meaningful connections and curated experiences to support personal growth and spiritual exploration. By dissolving barriers and eliminating distractions, we will empower people to realize their full potential, while cultivating a mindful community.

RETREAT HOSTS

DANIELLE LOMBARD

ENTREPRENEUR & SELF CARE EXPERT

Danielle is a soulful entrepreneur, bridging the gap between busy lives and sacred self care. From founding nail salons to brand development, she's evolved into a holistic wellness guide. Danielle empowers individuals to rise above stress, integrating plant medicine and mindful rituals to live a more balanced, purpose-driven life, harmonizing pleasure and productivity.

NICHA TABRIZI

FOUNDER & CONSULTANT, THEY THRIVE

Nicha spent over 20 years in the financial services industry as an executive for two of the largest banks in the world. This sparked her passion for coaching and developing people, later inspiring her to launch They Thrive, a business focused on helping individuals and organizations optimize performance and reach their full potential.

SHELBY KOBIN

CURATOR

Shelby is a skillful curator of people, experiences and spaces. An interdisciplinary student of the healing arts, yoga, meditation, and sacred earth medicines. Shelby brings her education and experience in psychology and aesthetics for over 15 years.
